MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM:

Director of Security

SUBJECT: Overtime Payments for Federal Protective Officers

1. Discussions with GSA on the subject continue. The Chief, Headquarters Security Group, met with GSA officials again on 6 February 1985. The position of GSA in regard to additional costs for Federal Protective Officers appears to have changed significantly in favor of the Agency. GSA now appears willing to drop any claim against SLUC money previously returned to the Agency and demands for overtime payments appear more reasonable.

2. This entire subject seems to have lost the attention of Mr. James G. Whitlock, GSA Assistant Regional Administrator, Public Buildings and Real Property, and will now likely be settled through normal channels within 2 weeks. Your office will be kept advised of further developments.
